The biography was left out of the Globe this week.

Vote for Hinkel—and don't you forget it—he will be elected.

Vote for Myton—and don't you forget it—he will be elected.

Vote for Evans—and don't you forget it—he will be elected.

Don't you forget it—Hinkel, Myton and Evans will be elected.

Mrs. J. Q. Adams is carrying on a fine restaurant near the depot.

F. C. Zimmermann has gone on business to Topeka and Kansas City.

The sheep trade promises to be as good this month as at any time this season.

What political bird fouled his nest at the hotel in Spearville last week?

The Dodge House has secured new help in the dining room and chambers.

Chas. Dickerson has returned from the East, and will engage in business again.

Thos. Lahey sold 360 lambs to Mr. Hersman, of Meade county, and 50 ewes to J. H. Crawford.

Nicholas Hanson presented us with very large carrots grown by Harrison Berry, on his island farm.

Hinkel, Myton and Evans are making a good canvass. Their election is conceded by a handsome majority.

A large majority of the people of Ford county are satisfied with Sheriff Hinkel. They will vote to retain him.

Thomas Buzz, Deputy Sheriff, has resigned his office. Sheriff Hinkel has not yet designated Mr. Buzz's successor.

An examination of teachers will be held at the school house in Dodge City, on Saturday Nov. 12th., by the county superintendent.

The Dodge City Flouring Mills has engaged another miller, and with two working forces are now running day and night. The mill is doing a good business.

The Dodge City Live Stock Commission Company sold to Mr. Bowby, of Kinsley, 200 head of cows and calves, at $20. The cattle belonged to R. M. Wright.

Thos. B. Rice and family have gone for a few weeks visit to friends in Missouri. His brother Will, of Pueblo, has gone to visit parents in Virginia.

Dick Evans candidate for county Treasurer, is a crack shot. On Saturday he killed a goose at long range. Dick, being a fine marksman will shoot straight into the Treasurer office.

Rev. Robert Loehrer, Catholic minister, succeeds Father Wolf in his ministerial duties here. Rev. Mr. Wolf will be stationed in the eastern part of the State, but the place has not been designated yet. We regret to lose Father Wolf but wish him success in his new field. The Rev. Mr. Loehrer is a young gentleman who will become popular with his parishioners. He preached his first sermon here on Sunday.

Mr. Charles Brower, who was a citizen of Robinson for only a few months, and who in that time made many friends and accumulated much money, has taken his departure and pitches his tent in Dodge City, Kas., where he is engaged in the restaurant business quite extensively. Charles was in the same business here, and we can vouch for his success as a caterer to the public. Success Charles.—Robinson (Colo.) Tribune.

Mr. Brower has opened a restaurant in the saloon now kept by Mr. Singer. He has fine arrangements for serving the best to be obtained. He opens to-day.

J. D. Shaffer is spoken of as a candidate for county Commissioner in the east end of the county. He would make a good Commissioner, and his friends claim that he would run well.

The Railroad Company is putting up temporary frame structures for round houses. In the spring a 24 stall round house will be built of stone. A. Mr. Brown has the contract for this building. The new round-house will be located a little east of the present building.

The Topeka Capital is now issued by a publishing company with J. K. Hudson as business manager and Henry King, editor. The Capital will now compare with the best daily papers in the west. It is replete with the daily news and is ably edited. It presents a neat typographical appearance. We wish it success.

S. B. Williams, the well known sheep grower, returned from Hays City last week, where he disposed of his sheep at good prices. Mr. Williams is going to make a trip East this fall, and will return in February. He will purchase a flock of sheep in New Mexico and winter them on his ranch 50 miles Southeast of Dodge.

Fred. Singer has resigned the office of City Marshal, and Mayor Webster has appointed B. C. Vandenberg to the position. Mr. Singer made an energetic and attentive officer. He was always on duty, and faithfully discharged his trust. Fred gave up the office in order to engage in more profitable business.

Mr. J. S. Marcus is canvassing for Manning's Stock and Live Stock Encyclopedia, a complete work on the management of stock and cure of stock diseases. The book is profusely illustrated and handsomely bound. Mr. Marcus is meeting with good success in obtaining subscriptions. Every stockman and farmer ought to have this book.

H. A. Hubbard, the well-known sheep dealer, leaves to-night for Wisconsin. He intends making his home in Mobile, Ala., and will go to that city this winter. He and his brother John are engaged in the lumber business in Mobile. Mr. Hubbard is a square upright man, and has many friends in this region who wish him success in his new home.

H. J. Fringer resigned as Postmaster at Dodge City, and the President has appointed Lloyd Shinn. The latter will resume his duties as P. M. in a few weeks. Judge Fringer has held the office for nine years and given satisfaction generally, as his patrons can testify. He will take a visit East about Christmas, and no one wishes him better success than we do. He will continue to make Dodge his home.

DEATH OF MRS. DRAPER.—Mrs. Corn Draper, wife of M. R. Draper, died at seven o'clock last evening, at the family residence in this city, of consumption, after a protracted illness. Mrs. Draper had been in feeble health for some time, and at last succumbed to the insidious disease. Her death leaves a void in Dodge City society, but Heaven has added an angel spirit, whose graces and virtues on earth entitle her to the crown in the galaxy of the heavenly sphere. Mrs. Draper was a good woman—a devoted and loving wife, a kind and faithful friend, and possessed the graces and charms of a lady. Her death leaves a sorrowing husband, and sympathizing friends and neighbors. The death of this noble woman makes common sympathy, for she was respected and admired by rich and poor, and the great and humble. As it is on earth so it is in the realms of the unknown; that gentle spirit has left things mortal to shine in the blissful immortality; but kind remembrances are left, and the memory of the departed will always be sacred.

A babe a few months old is left to the care of the afflicted husband and father. The remains of the deceased will be taken to St. Louis for interment, the birth-place and former home of the deceased.

"And don't you forget it" Hinkel will be elected sheriff.

Engineer Jake Meyers, who had his leg taken off below the knee in an accident last winter, had a settlement with the railroad company last week, receiving $7,600. Mr. Meyers will quit railroad and will go back to Aurora, Ill., to live.

LADIES', MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S FINE SHOES.—The undersigned has received and will keep constantly on hand the best assortment of Ladies', Misses' and Children's wear, at his boot and shoe stand opposite the railroad water tank. He invites the attention of the people of Dodge City and vicinity to the fine stock on hand.

G. H. TRIPP.

STOCK EXCHANGE.—Mr. Webster has opened a new stand adjoining the Brick Store. Stockmen and travelers will find the choicest commodities that will make their thirst exhilarate a languish mind, and "brace up" a weak constitution. The Exchange is doing a rushing business.

OLD HOUSE.—Fred Singer has taken charge of the "Old House," lately occupied by Mr. Webster. Fred is an excellent caterer to the taste of thrifty people. His place will be a popular resort in Dodge City. The Brower Bros. have opened a restaurant in the "Old House" and a "square meal" on the European plan may be had by the hungry and fastidious visitors.

SALE OF SHORT HORNS.—On next Tuesday, November 8th, will be sold at River-view Park, Kansas City, Mo., a fine selection of 50 head of short horns from the celebrated Stoner herd of Geo. M. Bedford, of Paris, Ky. There are several choice prize cattle, male and female, in the number. See advertisement in another column. Catalogues give full descriptions. Stock-raisers in this section of the country are taking great interest in the introduction of finely improved stock, and the importance of these public sales is manifest to them. Geo. M. Bedford is a famous breeder of fine stock cattle and his sales attract large crowds of anxious buyers.

SPEARVILLE DOINGS.

—The dedication exercise of the new Presbyterian church building, recently completed at this place, came off last Sabbath, and was conducted by Rev. Bramby of Kinsley, assisted by Rev. O. W. Wright, of Dodge city, and consisted (after singing and prayer): Reading by Rev. Bramby a part of the 8th chapter of Kings, commencing at the 22d verse and reading balance of said chapter taking for his text the 18th verse of the 8th chapter of Romans. He delivered a very able discourse followed by partaking of the sacrament. The invitation was extended to others by Rev. Wright who were members of Orthodox churches to join them in partaking of the sacrament, concluding the exercise by prayer, singing and pronouncing the benediction. The greatest mark of civilization is the school house and the church, the former we have had for some time and the latter we have just completed, and we can now be counted among the civilized communities. A vast contrast to what these places once presented when inhabited by the aborigines of the country who had no edifice of knowledge or temple of worship, their wigwams alone being the only works of their uncivilized habitation.

—Married by the Rev. Bramby at the residence of the bride's parents in Kinsley, Kan., Oct. 27, 1881, Mr. Andrew Kingkade, station agent at this place, and Miss Lucy T. Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Martin. The newly married couple immediately started for the East on their tour expecting to be gone several weeks. Mr. Kingkade has been a faithful employee of the railroad company for the last five years. Previous to being assigned to duty here some two years past he was night operator at the Kinsley office. It was there on the night of the 28th day of January 1878 he distinguished himself for bravery when the notorious Dave Rudebaugh, of New Mexico fame, in company with Mike Rourke, who is now serving out a sentence in the state prison, together with three others attempted to rob the railroad office, drawing their revolvers on Kingkade and threatening him with instant death if he did not unlock the safe, but their dastardly threats and the flourishing of their deadly weapons failed to make him do their bidding, and the young man was spared to marry one of the fairest daughters of Kinsley. May they live long and be happy; none but the brave deserve the fair, that being true, to all appearances Spearville has a number of cowards.

—On last Sabbath Rev. Wright informed the congregation that there was a $100 needed to defray various little expenses in and about the church, and requested that that amount be raised. In response to his request there was $112.35 subscribed a part of which was paid in.

—Mr. J. H. Vangelder, of Catskill, New York, recently departed for his home having spent some time here visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. S. L. Pine. Mr. Vangelder was very much pleased with the country and thinks of engaging in the stock business with Mr. Pine.

—Mr. G. B. Laka, who spends his summer here and winters in Texas, recently departed for the last named state.

—Rev. Wolf O. S. B. departed for Atchison, on Monday of this week where he expects to be permanently located in his ministerial duties for some time to come.

—Mrs. Mikewell and her two daughters departed for their home in Ohio on Tuesday of this week having been for some time visiting her son, Mr. Uriah Mikewell who is engaged in sheep raising.

—Our new church recently completed, cost $650 and is all paid for.

Dr. Loring, the new Commissioner of Agriculture, is the son of a clergyman who lived at North Andover, Mass. The story is told that he and his brother were giant boys. Their father said them one day to an adjacent cattle show with some very fat hogs to exhibit. The boys were rather proud of the many compliments paid to the hogs, until a farmer came along and said to an acquaintance: "Mighty nice boys those of Paman Loring's, but why don't he give his boys more to eat and his hogs less?"
